Menefee Elmore has developed a new kind of corn. The shoot comes out of the ground and produces a nice ear of corn without any stalk or tassel above it. We doubt if kernels of this corn would ever germinate. If this freak of nature should ever make a good yield of corn it is certain that fodder would be scarce.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists.

Broke Into His House.

S. Le Quinn of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

The statement is made by the Chaplain in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic that in the hospitals of Washington are 1,000 insane soldiers who returned from the Philippines. He declares their plight to be due to lack of church work in the army and navy.

The ceremonies inaugurating Rev. Frederick W. Hilt, Ph. D., D. D., president of Central University, were begun at Danville at 11:30 yesterday before one of the largest and most representative audiences that ever gathered in the Second Presbyterian church, the rostrum being thronged with notable men from different parts of the country, Gov. Beckham among them. Rev. J. McCloskey Blany, of Frankfort, made the introductory address, which was followed by addresses by the moderators of the synods of Kentucky. The charge to the president-elect was delivered by Rev. H. Gelon Rout, of Versailles, after which the inaugural address was made by Dr. Hilt.

KINGSVILLE.

Rev. Powell, of Lexington, failed to fill his appointment at the Christian church last Sunday, but will come next Sunday, we are informed.

Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store. Trial bottles free.

MR. ADAM W. CARPENTER.

All come and help a good cause. Notice of time later.

It is with regret that we give up such good christian families as Mr. McWhorter's and Mr. Condon's. Mr. McWhorter is an active member of the Baptist church and his entire life here has been devoted to fighting wrong and upholding right and his splendid wife and daughters will be sadly missed. Mr. Condon is as good a member as the Christian church ever had and his place will be hard to fill. We heartily commend them to any locality they move to, as being worthy of trust and respect.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.

ALTON BROOKS PARKER, of New York.

For Vice President.

HENRY G. DAVIS,
of West Virginia.

For Judge Fifth Appellate District,

JUDGE JAMES E. CANTRILL,
Of Georgetown.

For Congress.

GEORGE G. GILBERT, of Shelby.

"YOUNG" DAVIS continues his record breaking tour of West Virginia. He is talking to his neighbors in a practical fashion, as one plain man might talk to another. They know him. They have seen him advance from a brakeman on a railroad to the highest position one can attain—a secure place in the affections of his fellow citizens. His fortune was earned by incessant toil. His rugged health, like his honest nature, was an inheritance and he has conserved both by a careful life. West Virginia honors this grand old man, and it will show its confidence in him by giving him and Judge Parker its electoral vote.

It is unfortunate that brothers should seek office against each other, but in the case we have in view not much ill feeling will likely result. In the 11th district Hon. George E. Stone is the democratic nominee and his older brother, Judge W. S. Stone, is the nominee of the prohibitionists. They both live at Monticello and it is a 100 to 1 shot that neither will move to Washington after March of next year.

DOWIE, who claims to be the second Elijah, has commanded his followers to vote for Roosevelt because he says Roosevelt is against "a government of the people, by the people, for the people." The occupant of the white house will not be likely to appreciate this just compliment of the so-called Prophet of Z on.

The democratic party has never offered a better nor cleaner ticket than the one that will be found on the ballot under the rooster. Vote for it and you will be proud enough of it in the years that are to come to tell your children and your children's children about it.

FOUR years ago to-morrow the present editor of this paper took charge and thanks to a liberal constituency the wolf hasn't gotten entirely in his door yet. May he keep out.

OHIO's governor is imitating Teddy. He died with a Negro at the Arcade Hotel in Springfield. The colored gentleman's name is Sully James.

LESS than three weeks until the election and no enthusiasm yet. Can't somebody do something to stir things up?

TEDDY entertained the other day but Booker's name did not appear in the list of the notables present.

POLITICAL.

Chicago's registration is no greater than it was in 1900, and the political workers are disappointed at the outcome.

The Georgetown Times offers a prize for the rural mail carrier or guager who has not been assessed by the republican campaign committee.

Henry G. Davis ended his whirlwind campaign through West Virginia at Wayne. During the trip he traveled 1,300 miles and spoke in 78 cities and towns. Mr. Davis expressed the belief that the State will go democratic and says such is the opinion of the party leaders.

The Kentucky State Grange in session at Cynthiana adopted resolutions urging the establishment of the parcels posts and postal currency and the passage of a law giving women the right to vote. Gov. Beckham addressed the body, advocating a better education for farm boys.

The enthusiasm of the New York democrats for Parker and Davis is having its effect in all the doubtful States East and West. New Jersey, Rhode Island and Connecticut are responding with particular promptness to the demand for a safe and sane administration of national affairs.

William J. Bryan spoke in Louisville and New Albany last night to crowds that exceeded all expectations. His Louisville audience packed Phoenix Hill Park. Not less enthusiastic was his New Albany reception, where in open air between 10,000 and 15,000 people heard him.

MIDDLEBURG.

The writer is in receipt of the democratic campaign text book from national headquarters, which he prizes highly.

The M. E. parsonage has lately been palatial and repaired inside and out. William Miller is erecting a "business" building near his shop.

Mr. William Myers, who was greatly improved, suffered a relapse and is still very poorly. Geo. Wesley is lying dangerously ill with flux and fears are entertained for his recovery. Little Martha Dye is battling with malaria.

Rev. M. M. Roundtree, the new pastor of the M. E. church is here, and will move his family from near Clay City within the next few days. The new pastor preached Sunday, Sunday night, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights and was well received.

W. F. Martin, a veteran of the Philippine Insurrection has a relic in the shape of a company locker belonging to Co. B, 27th Mich. Inf., during the War of the Rebellion. It was given to Mr. Martin's father during the war when the Michigan troops were here holding the wily Caseyites in subjection.

The name of Judge W. S. Stone will appear on the ballot as the prohibition nominee for Congress from this, the 11th district. Besides being one of the very best lawyers in the State of Kentucky, Judge Stone was a gallant soldier of the Confederacy, having followed the stars and bars under the dauntless Morgan. He is also a brother of Hon. George E. Stone, the democratic nominee for the same office, and owing to his great popularity will poll a surprising vote.

The following persons have visited the big fair since our last writing: Supt. and Mrs. J. C. Jay, Mrs. W. J. Godbey, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Taylor and C. M. Hatter. Richard McDaniel is in Wayne. Rev. George E. Baker, the blind editor of the Burnside Commercial, spent a couple of days here in the interest of his paper and obtained quite a batch of subscribers. Besides editing and publishing one of the newest local sheets in Kentucky, Brer Baker preaches to four churches and is in charge of the Baptist Colportage work in Wayne county.

Middleburg is at last to have a bank, and that it will be a money maker no one will gainsay. The Farmers' Deposit Bank, of Middleburg, has been organized with a capital stock of $15,000 and work will begin on a $3,000 brick building in the course of a few days. The location of the bank will be on the site where the parsonage burned a few years ago, near the Baptist church. Messrs. Ed Smith and D. A. Thomas, of New Castle, were the promoters of the enterprise and the stock was readily subscribed. Mr. Thomas will be cashier. None of the other officers have been chosen.

Here and There.

While handling an old shot gun, Ode, the 17-year-old son, of W. T. King, of Garrard, was shot and killed. Carl Bechman, a school teacher in Union county, was shot by Jas. Fletcher for chastising Fletcher's daughter.

Louisville gets $400 annually for the privilege of sweeping her streets. The sweepings are used for making fertilizer.

A. J. Fish, proprietor of the Mt. Vernon Grocery Co., has sold his interest in the business to the barber, J. B. Harp.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

The jury at Harrodsburg returned a judgment against the Southern Railway Company for $15,000 for the killing of Engineer John Scanlan, of Louisville, last June.

Riley Coldiron has been indicted by the Breathitt county grand jury for perjury in connection with the indictment of Wm. Britton for the murder of James Cockrill.

Dr. George H. Purviance, assistant surgeon general of the Marine Hospital Service, jumped from a fourth story window of a Philadelphia hospital and was instantly killed.

Denial of the oft-repeated rumor that Miss Alice Roosevelt has become engaged to Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, was again made in the White House this week.

Clint Riley, colored, was dangerously cut in the head with a cleaver by James K. Moore, a butcher, at Pittsburg. There are two gashes in the Negro's head and he may not recover.

Govan Smith and Mrs. Arbrilla Bach have been indicted at Jackson, for the murder of "Licky Jim" Bach. It is claimed that Mrs. Bach killed her former husband with Smith's pistol.

The court of appeals in a case from the Menifee circuit court has decided that assessors are not entitled to commissions on property listed exempted from taxation. The court says while an assessor is required to gather statistics there is no provision for pay for such work.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose and in 15 minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." For sale by all druggists.

MATRIMONIAL.

Silas Carrier and Miss Mattie Denham were married at Highland Thursday.

Ross Singleton, aged 21, and Miss Mary Church, sweet 16, were married at Albert Church's yesterday.

J. C. Browning and Miss Mary Dobson, of Columbia, were married at the Willard Hotel in Louisville.

Mrs. Maggie A. Snow has been appointed postmaster at Kidd's Store and S. A. Douglas at McGuffey, Pulaski county.

Elias Hatfield, son of the famous Devil Anse Hatfield, who recently secured his brother's pardon from the Kentucky penitentiary, eloped with Miss Helen Holland, daughter of one of the largest coal operators in West Virginia.

Mr. Stewart Hanson, a prosperous young farmer of the West End, was married in Russell county, Va., a few days ago to Miss Lucy Fugate, an charming young woman. They came immediately to his handsome home, the Dr. Logan place, where they are now at home to their friends.

WALKER-PENCE—Two hearts that had loved for years were joined together when Mr. Walter Owsley Walker and Miss Annie Pence were made one in a pretty ceremony by Rev. P. J. Ross at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pence at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The occasion was a happy and brilliant one and the Pence home was appropriately decorated for it. The bride, who is a beautiful young woman, was gowned in a very handsome white broadcloth suit, elaborately trimmed in elegant lace, with white hat to match and she carried a prayer book. Her traveling dress was a handsome cravat with green hat. Messrs. Ed Walker and Alfred Pence were the attendants and Miss Etta Belle Cloyd played the wedding march—Mendelssohn's. The breakfast of a half dozen courses was elegantly served in the exquisitely decorated dining room. The breakfast over, Mr. and Mrs. Walker drove to Danville, where they took the Q. & C. for Cincinnati to spend a week. On their return they will make their home with the bride's parents and will be at home to their friends after Nov. 1st. They were the recipients of many beautiful and handsome presents, which attested to some extent the popularity of the young pair. The bride is a charming young lady, beautiful of face and character and is highly cultured. She is the only child of her fond parents, who have spared neither time nor means in fitting her for a useful life. The groom is a son of Mr. A. K. Walker, of Garrard, but has been a citizen of this place for a number of years. He holds a responsible position in the Lincoln County National Bank and no young man in the community stands higher.

Testimony of a Minister.

Rev. Jas. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. WITH a ticket headed by Parker and Davis, followed by Cantrill and Gilbert we don't see how any man with an iota of democracy can stay away from the polls. Yet some democrats will do, to their shame be it said. Your failure to vote may lose Lincoln county to the republicans. Help to prevent such a shame by going to your precinct early on the morning of Tuesday, Nov. 8th, and stamping in the circle under the rooster. Don't fail.

THE Madison County Medical Society met Thursday at Dr. Dunn's office. A very interesting program was rendered, among other things being a splendid paper by Dr. Steele Bailey, of Stanford, who for 19 years was secretary of the State Association and last year was its president. THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John B. Foster. All members are urged to be present on account of important business and come prepared to pay their back dues. Mrs. L. B. Cook, secretary.

DUDDERAR.—Mr. James A. Dudderar, who has made a splendid magistrate, announces his candidacy for re-nomination by the primary Dec. 3. His platform is his record as magistrate and he and his many friends believe that he will win on it. Besides being a good democrat, Mr. Dudderar is a christian gentleman and an excellent citizen.

THE BALLOTS—County Clerk Cooper has received the official ballot to be used in the November election and from it this office will print 6,000 or more. Of course the democratic ticket with the rooster is first; then comes the republican for cabin, the prohibition party with the phoenix is third, the populist emblem, the plow, follows; the socialist with two hands clasped, and the socialist labor, with an arm and hammer, are last.

ALFORD—Mr. J. R. Alford, one of Stanford's oldest and best citizens, died about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon after a protracted illness of a complication of diseases. The burial took place in Buffalo cemetery Wednesday afternoon after services at the home of Mr. George D. Wearan conducted by Revs. P. J. Ross and Gilbert Glass. Deceased was a warm hearted, good man and the many friends he left sorrow at his taking away. Mr. Alford was born March 11, 1816, near South Fork, Lincoln county, this State. He came to Stanford when a mere youth to serve an apprenticeship with a blacksmith, Mr. Berry, and boarded with him in the same house in which he has lived continuously for 52 years. On July 20, 1837, he was married to Miss Amanda Jane Cox, of Mercer county. They spent their early married life in Washington and Anderson counties, coming to Stanford about 1852 where they spent the remainder of their lives, she having died Aug. 21, 1886. To them were born four children. The oldest and youngest died quite young and Mrs. Geo. D. Wearan is the only survivor, Mr. B. G. Alford having died May 23, of this year. Mr. J. R. Alford ran a lively stable and a blacksmith shop in this town for about 25 years and was also numbered among the old merchants, occupying the room in business where the first bank of Stanford was opened. He was converted some 50 years ago, uniting with the Methodist church. He had eight brothers and one sister, all of whom are now dead. In September, 1887, he was married to Mrs. Lucy E. Seideman, who died Oct. 1, 1898, since which time he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Wearan. He had seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren living, two great-grandchildren dead. Four generations have lived in the Wearan home the past four years and gathered at the same table.

DRY is no name for it here. Good drinking water is scarce while water for stock is barely obtainable at any cost or inconvenience. The water company turns on water only about three hours daily and then it has to be used sparingly. Prospects for rain are fairly good, however, and we hope to report a "cold soaker and a river riser" next issue.
